

OLD ST.CROIX

1838

XO Reserve

1888 COPENHAGEN MEDAL

HISTORICAL HONOR
- TIMELESS FLAVOR

Old St. Croix XO Reserve - 1888 Copenhagen Medal is a modern tribute to the blend awarded a medal at the Great Nordic Exhibition in Copenhagen in 1888 – a proud moment for the family of pharmacist Albert Heinrich Riise.

At its core are extra-aged, double-distilled casks sourced from respected distilleries in the West Indies and Central America. The blend is matured in oak barrels that previously held sweet dessert wines, adding layers of depth, complexity, and rich, warm character.

The taste is smooth and aromatic, with notes of dried apricot, soft oak, and a hint of spice. XO Reserve 1888 Copenhagen Medal balances West Indian tradition with modern finesse – an inspired choice for curious newcomers and seasoned connoisseurs alike.

Take a journey through time – and taste the legacy.

TASTING NOTES

Aroma	Soft oak, old leather and dried abricots
Taste	Warm spices, Christmas cake and orange peel, ending with a hint of English wine gums
Finish	Dried fruit, old oak and a note of sherry
Color	Polished Amber

WWW.OLDSTCROIX.COM