XO Christmas Reserve

A CARIBBEAN CHRISTMAS
WITH A DANISH HEART

In the former Danish West Indies, Christmas was celebrated just like in the North – with hymns, holiday stories, and dancing around the tree, even if it had to be shipped across the Atlantic. Inspired by this unique seasonal spirit, our Master Distiller created the XO Reserve Christmas Edition – an aromatic and well-balanced holiday blend.

Old St. Croix XO Reserve - Christmas Edition is part of our XO Reserve Series – a collection of extra-aged, double-distilled blends carefully selected for their smooth, consistent character. This special holiday edition is matured in PX sherry casks and reveals delicate notes of classic Christmas spices. The balance of sweetness, warmth, and spice brings a true sense of seasonal comfort. Perfect for festive dinners, gift unwrapping, or a quiet evening by the fire. And if there's any left... well, they do say Christmas lasts till Easter.

Holiday in every drop. Magic in every moment.

Finish	A mild, spicy note from the barrel emerges gradually
